

Armadale Young Writers' Awards Writing Workshops

Saturday 4 May
Armadale Library

Year 3 & 4: 11am - noon

Year 5 & 6: 1 - 2pm

Year 7 to 12: 2.30 - 3.30pm

Mark Greenwood is a prolific award winning author of both fiction and non-fiction books. These include Simpson and his Donkey, Jandamarra, the History Mysteries series, and his latest book The Happiness Box.

Mark is well known internationally as a 'history hunter' for his books about Australia's history and the depth of research he undertakes.

This is a wonderful opportunity to work with Mark who will provide writing tips and offer encouragement at these free writing workshops.

These sessions are open to students in years 3 to 12 who reside or attend school in the City of Armadale.

Places are limited, and bookings are essential. To confirm eligibility and book your place, call Armadale Library on 9394 5125.

If you are unable to attend after booking, please notify the library.

5 / 2019

Armadale Library 9394 5125
Kelmscott Library 9394 5810
Seville Grove Library 9394 5800
library.armadale.wa.gov.au

