

Homebound Delivery Service

The City of Armadale Libraries have a home delivery service, available for people who are unable to visit the library to borrow items.

The service visits fortnightly with a selection of items chosen by library staff to meet your interests.

Contact one of our libraries if you wish to find out more or access this free service.